

Transportation Services

Transportation may be a special education related service if it is determined to be a student need by the IEP team. If your student's individual needs cannot be met on a general education bus, an Individual Transportation Plan (ITP) needs to be submitted with the reasons that specialized transportation is necessary. Your student's case manager will complete and submit the ITP after IEP team discussion.